

Journal Impact Factors

To view the impact factor of an individual journal by searching Journal Citation Reports:

1. From the Library's homepage, select Databases.
2. Using the drop-down Alphabetic List, select Journal Citation Reports.
3. Enter the title of the journal in the "Go to Journal Profile" search box and click the magnifying glass button to run your search.

To view the highest impact journals in a certain field:

1. From the Library's homepage, select Databases.
2. Using the drop-down Alphabetic List, select Journal Citation Reports.
3. On the homepage, select "Select Categories" from the menu on the lower left.
4. After you select a category, scroll down, and click the Submit button.

The screenshot displays the 'Select Journals' interface. A 'Select Category' dropdown menu is open, showing a list of categories with checkboxes. The 'CARDIAC & CARDIOVASCULAR SYSTEMS' category is selected. Below the menu, the 'Impact Factor Range' and 'Average JIF Percentile Range' sections are visible, each with two dropdown menus and a 'to' separator. A red arrow points to the second dropdown menu in the 'Average JIF Percentile Range' section. At the bottom, there are 'Clear' and 'Submit' buttons.
